

FY21-22 GRATITUDE REPORT

May 1, 2021-
April 30, 2022

Message from the Director...

Dear Friend,

We are proud to present our annual report with insights into how we serve our nine communities and beyond. The numbers and activities contained herein are a snapshot of our organization's significant activities as well as our current financial picture.

You'll notice that we title this our Gratitude Report and I can sincerely say that has never seemed more appropriate. Since joining WDSRA as Executive Director on June 1, 2021, I have had the distinct privilege of seeing amazing support from both within and beyond our organization. Continued challenges from the pandemic, staffing shortages, unforeseen cancellations and other events have not deterred our staff from serving in the best possible manner.

Participant stories like Christian's, Sophie's and many more provide us evidence of meaningful impact on an individual level. Of course, the goal is to serve our communities to the greatest possible level. We're working toward that through a return to adequate staffing levels and a focus on what's NEXT. Helping us along the way is a new strategic plan which should be completed late 2022 or early 2023. We're reaching out to our nine communities, intergovernmental partners, community leaders, families, participants, staff, our Foundation board, and others to get agreement on where we are headed. I'm excited about the future and promise that we're going to embrace new directions.

Our gratitude report might not reach everyone who deserves thanks. But know that we are mindful and humble to have the support of our service partners, Foundation, board members, part-time staff, volunteers, and in-house professionals who make our services go. The demand for services continues to increase and we're grateful to be ready to answer the call. Thank you for everything in 2021-22, but I'm hopeful that you'll see an even stronger WDSRA in 2023 and beyond.

With gratitude,

Dan Leahy
Executive Director

MISSION

Restore & Rebuild

Leaning into the Mission & Vision

At WDSRA, the focus to RESTORE & REBUILD was achieved through creativity, innovation and an inspired energy. Rethinking the way we do business is how we focused on fulfilling our mission & vision, and of course, serving our participants & families.

Emerging from an ongoing pandemic and a significant labor shortage, the focus of the year was to RESTORE & REBUILD to continue delivering the very best programs and services essential to the health and wellbeing of participants and families.

Despite frequently changing COVID mitigations, we continued to modify how we delivered programs and services:

- As more facility space reopened, we were able to offer additional programs
- As the popularity of virtual programs continued to grow, we continued to serve in new ways
- We sought out new space to fill in where needed
- We worked closely with families to ensure the continued health and safety of participants and staff

The labor shortage, which impacted the available pool of program staff, had a direct correlation to what programs were offered:

- We developed innovative ways to manage the growing need for programs and the limited availability of program staff
- Alternating week schedules and additional sections were created for some of the most popular programs to accommodate more participants with fewer overall staff
- Families embraced the gradual return to programs.

Finally, we continued to evaluate how we can best serve our families by creating a strong, sustainable organization:

- We realigned our internal staff to better accommodate the ever-changing needs of our participants, families, staff, and communities

WDSRA Seasonal Program Registrations

WDSRA Inclusion Program Registrations

WDSRA Registration Trends

*FY21-22 combined winter and spring seasons resulting in a reduction of registrations despite an increase in true program hours.

Organization Highlights

- Dan Leahy steps in as Executive Director
- The Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting was awarded by the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada for comprehensive financial reporting
- WDSRA was named the Best of the Best in Special Needs Resources by Glancer Magazine.

Recreation Highlights

- Summer camps were held with fewer sections and with reduced numbers to allow for compliance with facility spacing requirements
- Program seasons were changed from six or eight weeks to twelve weeks
- Adapted an alternating weekly schedule for high-volume programs to allow for greater participation with half the number of seasonal staff, as well as remaining compliant with distancing expectations and best practices

Athletics Highlights

- Synergy Jr. Bulls won the IHSA state championship
- Synergy Jr. Bulls improved their ranking, placing in the top 15 of national rankings
- Synergy Boccia athlete, Michele Lynch, competed with Team USA in Brazil
- Synergy Boccia coach, Sam Williams, joined the Team USA coaching staff
- Two WDSRA Wildcat Floor Hockey teams medaled in the Special Olympics Illinois state games
- The first Wildcat Flag Football team was organized and won a bronze medal in the Special Olympics state tournament

Rec & Roll Day Program Highlights

- Fort Hill Rec & Roll site returned for three out of five days per week
- Increased the number of participants attending:
2021 – 104 unique participants, 249 registrations overall
2022 – 130 unique participants, 297 registrations overall
- Began construction on a seventh Rec & Roll site in Winfield

COVID-19 Impact

- COVID-19 Eligibility Guidelines remained in place for the year, which significantly impacted participation from individuals with more significant needs; this resulted in a reduced number of 1:1 staff needed for programs
- Removal of IDPH mask mandates increased participant eligibility
- Program maximums returned to normal allowances (with specific exceptions due to facility requirements and/or staff availability)
- Increased refunds due to COVID-19 related cancellations, as well as targeted Rec & Roll site shutdowns to limit exposures/spread

Christian's Story

After a difficult camp experience before finding WDSRA, Christine found herself at a crossroads. Would she be able to trust another camp to keep her son Christian safe? Would Christian feel safe going to camp again? OR was he destined to being cut off and isolated – away from the community.

Christian is a fun-loving 23-year-old. Living with cerebral palsy has its challenges but has never stopped him from wanting to be as involved as possible.

Christine, Christian's mom, has always tried to give him as many experiences as possible. At 12 years old, that included going to summer camp.

What began as an opportunity to enjoy typical summer camp fun led to an experience at another camp which left Christian traumatized and Christine heartbroken, devastated and angry.

That's when she turned to WDSRA

Reassuring Christine of the safety measures and protocols taken in every program and answering all her questions was huge for her AND Christian. Importantly, seeing Christian well-cared for at every turn made all the difference.

Now Christian has a safe place where he can spend time with friends and be a part of the community in which he lives. WDSRA has given Christian a social life and independence from always needing his parents with him. Through it all... he is flourishing!

With WDSRA, Christian is living life to his fullest!

“It took a little while, but it definitely was well worth it once he got involved. Once he flourished through all the programs he participated in, it made a tremendous difference.”

Christine, Christian's mom

Sophie's Story

After the fourth trip to the hospital last year, hospital staff urged the need for a plan to manage the consequences of Sophie's severe anxiety and depression. At 17-years-old, Sophie was trying to cope with Autism, dyslexia, depressive disorder, and chronic migraines as well as severe general, social and separation anxiety. That is a whole lot for a 17-year-old. She needed structure, an outlet for stress outside of home and school and an environment where she would feel safe.

Sophie is a delightful, bright 17-year-old.

It wasn't until she was a freshman in high school that there was a formal diagnosis of Autism and anxiety.

Though she loves school, the structure of it was something she needed, it could be exhausting for her. Going into the weekends exhausted and with no structure, her anxiety would sky rocket.

Every day was a challenge for Sophie.

After her fourth trip to the emergency room last year, hospital staff urged the need for a plan to manage the consequences of Sophie's severe anxiety and compulsive thoughts. Heather, Sophie's mom, knew they needed a plan for the weekends. She just didn't know what that plan would be.

That's when she was referred to WDSRA.

WDSRA was the lifeline she needed. Sophie found people she could be comfortable around and peers she could feel relaxed with all within the safe, structured environment she thrived in. She was finally able to make friendships and have a community where she could be herself. Heather found WDSRA was the place Sophie could be excited about without her anxiety escalating.

WDSRA was the weekend plan that they needed for Sophie and the whole family.

“WDSRA provides a safe place for friendships for Sophie. And I am so thankful for that.”

Heather, Sophie's mom

Thank You to Our Fundraising Partners

Your contributions help sustain in-person programs, virtual programs and inclusion services.

Because of the labor intensive nature of our programs, the constant fluctuation of part-time staff needs, and the rising costs overall, we continually need to bridge the gap between the cost of programming and the support received through member district contributions. That gap is filled through the generosity of grantors and donors.

The WDSRA Foundation assists with scholarships, vehicle purchases, program supplies, inclusion services, special projects, and more. Funds are generated through donations, sponsorships, events, appeals, and more. All proceeds benefit WDSRA participants and families.

Please consider the WDSRA Foundation when making charitable contributions and ask your friends and business associates to do the same. Every dollar donated stays within our communities and directly benefits families right here in DuPage County.

Does your company offer a matching gift program? This is an easy way to maximize your donation.

Our goal is to acknowledge all donors for FY21-22. If your name is missing, please contact the WDSRA office at 630-681-0962.

The WDSRA Foundation was developed to establish long-term programs of giving from individuals, businesses and organizations to further the goals and ideals of the Western DuPage Special Recreation Association. The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization.
